2ND TRAINING SESSION IN TBILISI 11TH TO 15TH OF JUNE 2018

INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL JUSTICE

From the 11th to the 15th of June 2018, the René Cassin Foundation - International Institute for Human Rights of Strasbourg (France), in partnership with the European University of Tbilisi and the International Black Sea University and with the support of the French Institute, is organizing its second decentralized training session in Tbilisi.

The session will be conducted in English.

This project is designed to strengthen participants' knowledge of regional and international instruments for the protection of human rights, and to provide them with adequate legal reflexes to prevent and deal with violations of fundamental rights. In addition to fundamental courses on the Universal and the European Human Rights Systems, International Humanitarian Law, International Criminal Law and Refugee law courses will provide them with helpful tools to manage conflictual and post-conflict situations.

Targeted public:

- Magistrates, lawyers, legal experts
- Professors and researchers
- National and international officials
- Human rights activists, NGO members
- Students in Master and Doctorate years
- Any interested party with a significant human rights-related experience

Special Award for the laureate of the test organized at the end of the training session: a scholarship covering admission fees to the 49th Summer Session organized in Strasbourg (France) during the month of July 2019.
